7. The Family Disorganization (Divorce) during Pandemic Covid-19 in Current Scenario

Dr. Anuradha Khade

Introduction

Today the impact of covid 19 has directly affected on various contents of society. Familiar impact is mainly concern towards the current scenario with rising cases across India. The details illustration has been including in this article with appropriate measures.

Family institution is a basic institution in society. Family includes husband, wife and their children in one house.

In short family is a biological, familiar, economic and social cultural institution. Family consists of social system and social structure. Healthy relationship is a main immortal part of every family system. Family is a primary group and first school of man of life, emotionally, limited size, responsibility, permanent and temporary nature, social regulation are the characteristics of family.

Nuclear and joint are the two types of family. Social disorganization distracts the social system and construction is called family disorganization. Divorce is defined as the formal end of marriage and it involves a legal process. It signifies the end of a relationship. Divorce is one of the most painful things one may have to undergo in life. It is the official or legal procedure to end a marriage.

A divorce is said to be the most traumatic event that can happen to a couple. In a country like India, divorce and religion are very much interconnected. Divorce occurs when a married person feels no longer capable of living with each other. It signifies end of a marital relationship i.e., breakage of marital bonding. Divorce is a fairly long process and involves a hectic procedure in a country like India.

To be divorced, there should be a mutual consent between the couple. Only when both parties are conclusive about divorce, the court shall consider it. After a divorce is complete there is no legal relation or obligation between the married people.

Recently the number of divorce cases has increased. This is mainly attributed to the changing culture, traditions and perceptions of today's society. India's ancient customs and traditions are being transformed to modern thinking and beliefs.

In the past divorce was considered as a social taboo. But now Indian society has undergone a lot of change. Initially divorce cases lasted only in cities but now has spread to towns and villages. Hence we can say that divorce rates are increasing day by day due to various reasons.

The effects on children, parents, relatives, friends and even the nation has been studied over many decades. There are many incidents that prove or show that divorce plays a very vital role in the psychology of a child, relative, nation, etc.
